WELCOME MESSAGE

Distinguished Guests, Esteemed Colleagues and Friends.

Scholars Conferences proudly presents the World Nursing Education and Practice Congress (WNEP 2025), an event is scheduled on 07-08 July 2025 at Prague, Czech Republic.

Scholars Conferences has got the honor to invite all the participants, speakers, students, delegates, sponsors and exhibitors from all over the world to attend it.

WNEP 2025 is a great occasion to meet important specialists and to know the last research works in the scientific areas of Nursing and Healthcare, with particular attention to the factors influencing the emergence, transmission and control, for example: Mental Health Awareness, Chronic Disease Management, Patient-Centered Care, End-of-Life and Palliative Care, etc.

The purpose of this Conference is to promote interest and spread novel information on this topic.

As a Professor specializing mainly in Medieval Arabic Science as well as an Organizing Committee Member of this event, I am fully convinced of its success for three reasons:

- It aims to provide high visibility and the opportunity to promote research, innovation and knowledge sharing among scholarly leaders of higher educational institutions across the globe.
- Its mission is basically to persistently nurture the values to promote the institutional and academic development through quality research contributions.
- Its objective is the exploration of new research insights for enhancing creativity and innovation.

For all this, I am very proud to welcome you to this important Conference.

WELCOME MESSAGE

On behalf of the Organizing Committee, it is our genuine pleasure to invite you to attend World Nursing Education and Practice Congress to be held in Prague, Czech Republic, the Grand Capital City with its own and specific history of culture, music, architecture and science being a fascinating phenomenon, to be held on 7th-8th July, 2025.

The Event is a platform for nursing students, faculty, deans, practitioners and researchers to collaborate on topics affecting nursing of the newest generation. Building on the success of the preceding meetings, the upcoming Event whilst guiding concepts and philosophy of personalized and precision healthcare services (PPHCS) as the model of healthcare of the next step generation, is becoming the strategic mainstream of nursing research and practice! The collaboration and thus the strategic alliances are vital in this Era requiring a deep understanding of the roles and impact of nursery services in the areas of Personalized and Precision Oncology, Reproductive Medicine, Pediatrics, Rehabilitative Services and related fields. The latter, including genomic nursing, would help nurses explain genetic implications, determine risk probabilities and coordinate relevant care management procedures in a comprehensive and coherent manner for pre-illness persons-at-risk, patients and their caregivers.

Russia

The Conference promises to present a focus on global issues of research, nursing education, practice and leadership to provide care that saves lives, restores health, prevents illness and creates the future of health care, and would feature fantastic days of the best in nursing practice of the newest generation. Participants will have the opportunities to share information and the latest advance in the major and allied areas to renew the friendship, and to increase worldwide collaboration. It provides an opportunity to learn calibrate your professional intelligences, to gain ideas from experts in the field of nursing, and to establish network with nursing professionals from various parts of the world.

The Event would also provide the greatest platform for executives and specialists in the Nursing & Health Care Bioindustry to interact and foster significant new collaborations, to set up strategic alliances and successful business relationships. We do hope that you will enjoy the Conference and that your interaction with your colleagues will stimulate a creative exchange of ideas and will be personally rewarding! The tremendous Prague being The Grande Dame of Europe and the ancient city that is the very picture of elegance, awaits you when you join our brilliant event!

WELCOME MESSAGE

Nurses make up a large part of the health workers around the world, so the education of this huge force will have a significant impact on the health of the societies. One of the ways to ensure their capabilities is to provide quality education, both theoretical and clinical. Considering the change of societies and therefore the change of their needs, the nursing profession should look to the future in line with these changes and maintain and promote the health of the general public by using innovations in education and practice. I hope with regards to the main theme “Advancing Global Health Through Innovative Nursing Education and Practice in World Nursing Education and Practice Congress (WNEP 2025)”, we will witness the presentation of valuable and quality materials in the direction of the future vision of nursing.
